INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDER, the value of which is time-settled.

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no house-keeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

I have tried Mr. Wm. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them very good.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES, } Editors.

Wednesday Evening, Oct. 31, 1866.

To Those Who Owe Us.

A considerable amount is due on our books, both for advertising and old subscription, which we need, and which we hope our friends will forward to us, at farthest, by the members coming to the Legislature.

4t.

Masterly Inactivity.

During the recent Gubernatorial and Legislative canvass, we, in common with our brethren of the press in North Carolina, felt it incumbent and imperative upon us so far to enter the arena of Federal politics as fully to ventilate and expose the enormity known as the Howard amendment, which is to be submitted to the ensuing General Assembly for ratification or rejection. The issue of that canvass has been all that we could have desired. The popular verdict has been expressed with unmistakable emphasis.—The people have instructed their representatives to refuse that amendment, not only upon its merits, which were amply discussed and thoroughly considered, but because they will have nothing to do with any proposition, especially one of so vital a character, to change the organic law of the land, which they had neither agency or voice in suggesting. It is established, beyond question, that the Governor, bowing to the mandate of his constituents, and consulting his own convictions of propriety and patriotism as well, will recommend the rejection of the Howard amendment, and that the Legislature will promptly obey the popular will.—Here ends, for the time, our connection, as a people, with national politics, and here closes our individual duty, as journalists, to discuss questions of Federal policy, except as they may occasionally present new and striking phases.—Our readers will observe that we have, of late, devoted our columns principally to the consideration of topics bearing upon our State interests, social, moral and industrial. We hope to be able to persevere "on this line," for some time to come, and to mark out a policy that will do North Carolina "some service."

We trust that this course will be the one generally adopted by the Southern press,—the policy of "masterly inactivity" in Federal matters. Henceforth, after simply putting themselves on record in the matter of the proposed Howard amendment, the States of the South can take no part in the battle that is going on for the vindication of the Constitutional rights of all the States. It must be fought out at the North, and by the Northern people only, and in no way, in our judgment, can we so effectually aid those who are struggling to overthrow the political ascendancy of the Radicals, as by remaining quiescent and passive. A simple recognition of Federal jurisdiction,—a quiet submission to the law and the constituted authorities,—the payment of taxes with what cheerfulness and composure we may, considering the monstrously unjust circumstances under which they are exacted,—a careful avoidance of everything that is calculated to exacerbate and stir up prejudice or passion; beyond these we can do nothing.

If we are to be restored to our proper place at all in the Union, it is for the North to bring us back, not as humble servitors and dependents, not as supple vessels of wax or clay to be moulded to suit the caprice of party or the vindictive purposes of faction, but unshorn of a single right that belongs to us in the Union, and as the peers of those who by force of arms constrained us to remain there. Upon them must rest the onus, present and future, of causing and perpetuating a dissevered Union, if they shall elect to do so. We are impotent to take that burden from their shoulders. If they are broad enough to bear it down the corridors of history, we can afford also to leave it for history to tell, how all our concessions were spurned, our advances rejected, our evidence of an honest desire to renew the old bonds of fraternal union despised,—how we were taxed without representation, and how we exhibited the spectacle of being in the Union, when it could work to our disadvantage, and out of the Union, when benefits were to be reaped or civil blessings enjoyed.

But no party or people can carry such a weight long. They will soon stagger under it and feel the pressure to be greater than they can bear. Their eyes will be opened "ere many moons" to the madness and wickedness of the men who are in the way of Union and the consummation of our great National destiny.—Meanwhile, for us, dignity, serenity and masterly inactivity are the promptings of duty, prudence, policy and self-respect.

GERRIT SMITH.—This gentleman has had the negro on the brain for many years, yet he has never joined in with the bitter partizans of his party. The following from his pen, though objectionable, yet, when compared with the propositions of the Radicals on the subject of restoration, or even with the Howard amendment, shows that the man has a heart:

"Happy should I be to see our country brought to a just and permanent peace on the following terms:

1st.—No more punishment—there has been enough.

2d.—No confiscation.

3d.—No disfranchisement of Southern offenders.

4th.—The national debt paid, and the secession debt blotted out.

5th.—Impartial suffrage. I believe in universal suffrage, but in this instance I would insist only upon impartial suffrage—impartial among all men, white, black and red.

6th.—In deep sorrow for the suffering and poverty of the South, let the nation exempt her for some five or ten years from the imposition of direct internal taxes. In these taxes I do not include duties on foreign goods.

7th.—Mutual forgiveness, and, as far as possible, forgetfulness of the wrongs which each has done the other."

THE FACTS which we gave on yesterday, from the census of 1860, of the productions of this State, compared favorably with those of our sister States in proportion to population, yet, as we stated, in that estimate a large amount of our marketable exports were not included. The large business done in naval stores, spirits of turpentine, lumber, shingles, fisheries and our mining operations, were not included—the exhibit being confined to agricultural products.

It is not only a matter of interest and of just pride to the people of the State, to know the real amount of the products of their skill and industry, and the amount of products exported annually out of the State and its value or income, so as to form some estimate of our trade beyond the limits of the State, and whether the balance is for or against us and how much, but it ought to be a matter of concern especially, in view of the credit to which such an exhibit would entitle the State abroad. Such information was always valuable, but is especially so now, when credit abroad has become so necessary to our recuperation.

In estimating the wealth of the State, or rather of the people in it, it is not safe simply to rely upon the assessed value of the real estate, chattel and other property possessed by the people. Such an estimate would place the State at a very low scale of wealth. Looking solely at that view, which is now commonly the case, we may well conclude that we are irrevocably ruined by the war. Hence the contrast between our past and present ability to pay debts or to make wealth is so discouraging.—But in making such an estimate, we have left entirely out of view the chief secret and source of wealth in the State. That is the labor, the skill and the enterprise of our people. The truth is, if we had nothing left us but these, we should still be in possession of enough to make us a great and prosperous people.

The only real answer to the question, What is North Carolina worth? what can she pay, for how much can she be trusted? is to ascertain what is the real value of the surplus product of the soil, the waters, forests, mines, labor, skill, and enterprise of our people, and the income of any interests they have outside of the State, over and above what is necessary to support our people and produce these products. Having first ascertained what is the value of the exportations from the State, then ascertain the value of the imports consumed in the State, and strike the balance. That will show the annual nett profits of the State, and of course will determine her ability, except such portion of the surplus as may be invested in permanent productive values, which must go to increase the next year's productive power.

How then can this be ascertained? So far as we can see, we have no system established by law, by which this question can be solved.—The census tables of the United States furnish an approximate estimate of the products of the State, once in ten years, but give us no clue to the amount or value of what is consumed in the State. The books of the United States Treasury can inform us of the amount of produce exported out of the State to foreign ports, but leave us entirely ignorant of the vast amount which is exported coast-wise and into our sister States.

North Carolina has always done but little foreign business. The bulk of her trade has been done through the other States; hence the value of her exportations has never been ascertained, nor can they be approximately estimated; hence, Virginia and South Carolina are credited for estimated millions of exports, while North Carolina is only credited for hundreds of thousands. And, hence it is, that the balance of trade in our commerce with the other States appears to be against us, while nothing short of a hap-hazard tax-bill, based upon the estimated or assessed value of property which is tangible to the eye, enables any one to determine the ability of the State or whether she is advancing or retrograding. And, hence, capitalists are left to their actual experience of the ability of the State to pay, by the readiness or dilatoriness of the people to bear taxation and to pay taxes. It strikes us, that some legislation is necessary, by which the real productive power of the State can be ascertained, and by which the real gains or increase of wealth in the State can be more easily discovered and made available to the improvement and support of her credit.

MEMPHIS, TENN.—The growth of this city has perhaps been more rapid, within the last five years, than that of any city in the West. The daily papers of Memphis, always one of the best indications of the growth of a place, are among the largest and best sustained in the country. The Avalanche would make a comfortable blanket in size, and all of its cotemporaries are fat and flourishing.

In 1852 the population of Memphis was not quite 13,000. In 1860, it was estimated at 40,000. At the present time, the Avalanche says, it would number 60,000; some say 70,000. The property of the city has more than quadrupled in value, perhaps, in the last five years. The daily arrivals at the hotels of the city will not fall short of 300 persons. Every species of business appears to be thriving. It is stated that there are 400 lawyers in the city and many of them are doing a good business.—It is estimated that 2500 new buildings were going up a short time ago. Quite a number of North Carolinians have settled there. We hope the day is not distant when Memphis will be put in close connection with the seaport towns of North Carolina.

MR. BROWNING'S letter has informed the Southern States what the President wants them to do. He wants them to let the constitutional amendment alone. The Southern States will be very likely to follow their own inclinations and the President's wishes in this matter.

GRANVILLE COUNTY.—Jno. D. Bullock is the Senator elect from this county; and Messrs. W. H. Jenkins, E. B. Lyon and H. Freeman are the Commoners.

Hie! to the Country.

We find the following in an exchange, which we commend to the notice of our colored population:

"The colored people of Nashville recently held a meeting to consider the propriety of going to the country. They were addressed by Judge Lawrence, of the Freedmen's Bureau, who advised them to quit the uncertain employment afforded in town, and get homes in the country. Another meeting is to be held to further the object of this meeting."

The colored people of Nashville have thus at length hit upon the wisest and soundest course they could adopt for their future welfare.

One of the most unaccountable proclivities in this country, and one of the most unfortunate, has been this blind policy of rushing into the towns and villages as soon as disaster and trouble come upon poor people. Thousands of poor men and women have been irrevocably ruined by this policy. Often sheer indolence, and a determination to live without work, are the sole causes of this; and it has been a most fruitful source of idleness, licentiousness, pauperism and ruin. A country life, passed in cultivating the soil, affords the most certain source of an honest and thrifty livelihood, while a town life, with high rents and everything to buy, brings to utter poverty and want hundreds who might, if they had borne the ills they suffered awhile in the country, soon have realized a good living.

One of the greatest sources of crime and poverty in our Southern towns has been the large number of unproductive white and colored persons who have congregated in them. Since the war, the number of consuming blacks has been greatly increased, much to their own injury and the injury of the community. The colored people cannot too soon change this policy. Hundreds who are now living from hand to mouth in town, if they would retire to the country, would soon go to work and become comfortable and independent.

Our citizens, who feel an interest in the colored people and the future welfare of both races, should encourage and advise those, who find it difficult to get employment, to seek homes and employment in the country. It is time that those, who are constantly going from post to pillar, should cease their migratory habits and settle down at some steady employment. "A rolling stone gathers no moss" is peculiarly applicable to persons who refuse thus to act.

TARBORO' AND WILLIAMSTON RAILROAD.—This Road the people of Edgecombe and Martin, the contiguous counties, and Norfolk, are much interested in. Already a considerable sum has been subscribed, and we judge, from the spirit manifested, "the thing will be done." The object is a good one. Our planters and others will seek the cheapest and best route to market. In this they are right. That policy which seeks to turn trade from its most natural channels must fail. Our agricultural interests must not be hampered, but the markets of the world must be thrown open to them. So short a Road can scarcely pay for many years to come, if ever, yet the advantages to the people of that section fully justify its construction. Progress should be the motto of the old North State; but let our enterprises be directed by sound discretion and the best skill. We wish this movement success.

Gov. Swann and the Police Commissioners.

The examination of witnesses by the petitioners for the removal of the Baltimore Police Commissioners was expected to be concluded Monday at noon; after which the Commissioners would examine witnesses in their defence, until to day, when the Governor will announce his decision. Of the character of the evidence which had been taken up to Saturday evening last, the Baltimore Sun says:

"The evidence bears mainly on the points of the alleged bad character and illegal acts of the judges and special policemen at the late municipal election, with circumstances indicating previous knowledge by the commissioners of the men they thus appointed and the course they were therefore likely to pursue. In one case a witness testifies to three men registered in 1865 being refused their votes for the Conservative ticket, or even to have their ballots placed in the separate box required by law for the rejected, while in another a witness testifies to the votes of several men being accepted in the third ward for the Radical ticket, although they had not been registered in 1865. And yet it was on the basis of the register of 1865 that the election was pretended to be held. Some of the special policemen and judges are described in various individual instances as notoriously ruffian; or, in the language of some deponents, as "loafers," and it is shown that in various instances they were employees of the city in other capacities. The generally violent partisan character of the large majority of the regular policemen in different districts and of the judges is also frequently referred to. The closing scenes in connection with the tearing down of the American flag, on the 9th instant, near the corner of North and Baltimore streets, are also referred to in the testimony, as is also the intoxication of one of the commissioners."

The correspondent of the New York Herald says:

"The disclosurers made of corruption and official misconduct during the election were astonishing. The evidence went to prove that the judges of the election and clerks were, with few exceptions, men of most disreputable character, well known to the police for their bad conduct, as well as low and vicious habits. It was also in evidence, as corroborated by several witnesses, that the windows where the judges sat were so selected as to hide them from view almost completely during the polling, so that fraud might be more easily carried on. It was also proved that no ballot was kept for votes that had been objected to and were in dispute, and that the special constables selected for the occasion were of the very worst class.

Men who were known to be conservatives, and held appointments in the police, were discharged upon trumped-up charges being brought up against them, and in all such cases radicals were put in their places. It was also in evidence that some of the Police Commissioners were seen drunk in the streets, and that rowdyism was permitted to go on unpunished and unprevented by the radical police, who openly used the most abusive language towards the President of the United States and Governor Swann.

No doubt is entertained of the removal of the Commissioners, and no trouble is feared when it takes place."

[From the National Intelligencer.]

Voltaire once said that he was "tired of hearing how twelve men had established the Christian religion, and he was resolved to show that one man could pull it down;" but no man—adds the vigorous writer and eloquent historian, Allison—since the days of the apostles has done so much, without intending it, for its establishment and propagation, as Voltaire himself.

An exemplar of this impious exhibition of selfish audacity is found in the character and conduct of that political Voltaire of our day, Thaddeus Stevens. History, which, says Bolingbroke, "is philosophy teaching by example," may record that the same success crowned the wicked attempt of the modern Voltaire to impair our matchless Constitution as has consigned to dust and infamy his great prototype.—Posterity will shrink back appalled at the thought that this man was permitted to lead the popular branch of Congress, and thereby exert so disastrous an influence at a critical and grave juncture. That the abominations of the third section of the constitutional amendment may be fully appreciated, we again reproduce it:

SEC. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, elector of President and Vice President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any state, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; but Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

Under the above proscriptive provision, the avenues of honor will be closed to all who "gave aid and comfort to the rebellion." And an eminently fitting feature of revolutionary fanaticism compressed within a narrow compass is the declaration of war upon what was established as inviolably sacred by the wise and good, namely; "The President shall have power to grant reprieves and pardons for offences against the United States, except in cases of Impeachment."—Art. I, sec. II.

The extent to which "aid and comfort" were given to the rebellion is to be decided by Congress. Whether it may have been given by him who passively submitted to the rebel regime, or who paid his proportion of the taxes necessary to carry on the war of resistance to the Government, is to be made the sport and by-play of that ingenuity which has sometimes maintained that he who does not labor to resist rebellious outrage acquiesces in its imposition.

By a provision of said section, the military skill and talent that so often, and for so long a period almost uninterruptedly, however mistaken the cause, led the forces of the rebellion to victory, would be rendered unavailable to the country in the event of a foreign war. Surely it will not be contended that some of our military commanders of the Radical civilian school could, in the contingency of foreign complications and wars, inspire true soldiers, North or South, with a semblance of the confidence which would be felt in the leadership of many of the proscribed military chiefs. Then this is an unwise policy to adopt it in time of peace we should prepare for war. The susceptibility to hurt to which such a measure, permanently engrafted upon the statutes, is exposed, has been fittingly foreshadowed by an excellent and distinguished man, now a Senator of the United States:

The political crimes of a few controlling individuals should not work a forfeiture of the rights of whole communities.

By the light of these proceedings, the country should not fail to read the sequel: The Radicals find too much to cavil at, in our present form of government, to be subjected to the suspicion of a desire to perpetuate it, unimpaired by flagrant and disastrous innovation.

At this particular posture of public affairs it is not deemed inappropriate to plead an indictment of Radical complicity in the attempted secession of the South, not only at the period immediately antedating the outbreak of hostilities, but while the war was flagant, thereby rightfully entitling the conspirators to a share in the odium of treachery.

It is axiomatic and is received everywhere, that he who incites a criminal act runs the hazard of whatever penalty the crime imposes.

The following disloyal sentiment was uttered by Senator Wade, of Ohio, when secession was in its incipiency: "But Southern gentlemen stand here, and in almost all their speeches speak of the dissolution of the Union as an element of every argument, as though it were a peculiar condescension on their part that they permitted the Union to stand at all. If they do not feel interested in upholding this Union; if it really trenches on their rights; if it endangers their institutons to such an extent that they cannot feel secure under it; if their interests are violently assailed by means of this Union, I am not one of those who expect that they will long continue under it. I am not one of those who would ask them to continue in such a Union. It would be doing violence to the platform of the party to which I belong. We have adopted the old Declaration of Independence as the basis of our political movement, which declares that any people, when their government ceases to protect their rights, when it is so subverted from the true purposes of government as to oppress them, have the right to recur to fundamental principles, and if need be to destroy the government under which they live and to erect on its ruins another more conducive to their welfare. I hold that they have this right. I will not blame any people for exercising it whenever they think the contingency has come. You cannot forcibly hold men in this Union, for the attempt to do so, it seems to me, would subvert the first principles of the Government under which we live."—Cong. Globe, Third Session, Thirty fourth Congress, page 25.

The following were the deliberate opinions of Horace Greeley. Has he ever disavowed them?

We have repeatedly said, and we once more insist, that the great principle embodied by Jefferson in the Declaration of Independence that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed, is sound and just, and that if the slave States, the cotton States, or the Gulf States only choose to form an independent nation, they have a moral right to do so.—Tribune of March 2, 1861.

If the cotton States shall become satisfied that they can do better out of the Union than in it, we insist on letting them go in peace. The right to secede may be a revolutionary one, but it exists nevertheless. * * We must ever resist the right of any State to remain in the Union and nullify or defy the laws thereof.—To withdraw from the Union is quite another matter. Whenever a considerable section of our Union shall deliberately resolve to go out, we shall resist all coercive measures designed to keep it in. We hope never to live in a republic whereof one section is pinned to another by bayonets.—Tribune of November 9, 1860.

If the cotton States unitedly and earnestly wish to withdraw peacefully from the Union, we think they should and would be allowed to do so. Any attempt to compel them by force to remain would be contrary to the principles enunciated in the immortal Declaration of Independence; contrary to the fundamental ideas on which human liberty is based.—Tribune, November 26, 1860.

If it [the Declaration of Independence] justified the secession from the British Empire of three million colonists in 1776, we do not see why it would not justify the secession of five million Southrons from the Union in 1861.—Tribune, December 17, 1860.

Whenever it shall be clear that the great body of the Southern people have become conclusively alienated from the Union, and anxious to escape from it, we will do our best to forward their views.—Tribune, February 23, 1861.

On the 15th of December, 1862, Judge Conway, of Kansas, introduced the following resolutions in the House of Representatives:

Resolved, That it is a matter for serious reflection whether another election of President must not supervene before the rightful authority of the nation can be established; and whether in the meantime it is not a flagrant waste of our energies to continue the war.

Resolved, That unless the Army of the West shall have swept through the valley of the Mississippi to its mouth, and the Army of the Potomac annihilated the legions of Lee and Jackson, thus subverting the military power of the rebellion, within a reasonable time, the best interests of the country and humanity will require a cessation of hostilities.

Resolved, That the States of the North composing the American nation, and wielding its power, must ever remain one and indivisible on the basis of freedom for all, without distinction of race, color or condition; that their mission must ever be to extend their own civilization over the entire continent, and that whatever derangements, difficulties, checks, or defeats they may encounter, they must forever cherish and pursue the idea of nationality and constitutional dominion.—House Journal, p. 69.

Mr. Stanton, of Ohio, proclaimed the following on the floor of the House of Representatives:

Seven or eight States now deny their allegiance to this Government, have organized a separate confederacy, and have declared their independence of this Government. Whether that independence is to be maintained or not is with the future. If they shall maintain their position and sustain the authorities there for a year or two to come, so as to show that nothing but a war of subjugation and conquest can bring them back, I, for one, am disposed to recognize that independence.—Congressional Globe, February 23, 1861, p. 1285.

The climax of Radical inconsistency is crowned by the following disloyal sentiments of Charles Sumner, in his "True Grandeur of Nations," in which he pronounced all international war to be civil war, and the partakers in it to be "traitors to God and enemies to man;" when he quoted Cicero to show that he "preferred the unjustest peace to the justest war;" and Franklin, to show that there "never was a good war or a bad peace;" or when he (Sumner) declared that "in our age there can be no peace that is not honorable."—Sumner's Works, vol. 1, p. 11.

It cannot be successfully denied that these parties have given "aid and comfort" to the rebellion; and it may well be a relevant matter for inquiry, by those whose province it is to decide upon the validity of the title to popoular consideration which the said "conspirators" at present enjoy, whether "true bills of indictment" may not be "found" against them.

If "treason" is a crime, no privileged class should escape that merited punishment, the fear of which might have prevented the delivery of Wade's philippic.

The punishment of the Southern people is not deemed to have been sufficiently severe; the loss of homes, fortune, relatives, and friends, the retrogade of civil progress, and their exclusion from all participation in the public voice, all have been returned by a quiet submission to the laws and an acquiescence in the demands of constitutional security for the future, without parallel or precedent.

LINWOOD, AND RICH JERSEY LANDS,

LOSSES of property and my sons, with a desire to close business and pay my debts, has induced me to convey, by Deed in Trust, all my property to Alfred Hargrave, of Lexington, North Carolina, which will be sold by him, and conveyances made, on Tuesday, the 11th. of December, 1866, at LINWOOD first, and Lexington next, from day to day until all is sold, consisting of the following property:

Linwood, Consisting of 1,649 Acres.

This celebrated tract will be divided into a number of ones, suiting large or smaller purchasers, including a valuable Flouring Mill, a comfortable roomy Cottage, Servant's Houses, Barns, Shops, with wells and springs of excellent water. The natural fertility of these land is unsurpassed even in the famed 'Jersey Settlement," in the heart of which they are located. They lie on both sides of the North Carolina Railroad, 7 miles from Lexington, and 11 from Salisbury, N. C. These lands are bounded by the Yadkin River, and run north and east covering Swearing Creek, and north and south Pott's Creek; have been ditched, drained and under-drained at much expense; have nearly five hundred acres of woodland, in heavy, original forest growth, equally distributed on different parts of the estate, and sufficient for farming purposes, not an acre but what is well situated for cultivation, or the raising of grass. There are now on them fine mowing and grazing lots and fields, with woodland pastures. In all these particulars constituting one of the most desirable and healthy estates in the South. It is enough to say for it, that it is the best and most valuable estate in the famed "Jersey Settlement," and has been under a state of improvement for forty years. Cotton, Wheat and Corn have been the staple products, but there are now large fields in a condition to produce the best yield and quality of shipping Tobacco, drained and cleared of stumps and stones, easily to be broken and ridged into ground for tobacco hills.

Also, a tract of two hundred Acres of Woodland, in original forest growth, of Oak, Hickory and Yellow Pine, 2½ miles from Lexington, and 2½ miles from a Saw Mill on Abbott's Creek, and known as the Garner Place.

Also, 81 Acres—the TRENTHAM PLACE—constituting a part and adjoining the town of Lexington. Highly improved land.

Also, my interest in the Houses and Lots on which I live, in all nine acres, on which is a Fine Mansion House and improvements.

Also, the Celebrated Blooded Stallion, MEDLEY, drives well in harness. A match of superior blooded Carriage Horses, kind in harness. A superior Blooded Gelding, 4 years old. Two Blooded Brood Mares, one with a Colt. One Buggy Horse. Twenty first-class Mules, and two Jennies. Also a fine Blooded Filly, going on four years old.

Also, 87 head best bred North Devon Cattle, bred from the best imported Bulls and Premium Cows, of which there are about 40 Milch Cows, 3 fine Bulls, with young Bull Calves and Heifers, &c., and a fine yoke of North Devon Oxen.

Also, 88 head best bred South Down Sheep, including a superior lot of Rams, all of the best importations. A Stock of Hogs. The whole of the crop of Corn, Cotton, Oats, Hay, Fodder, Straw, Shucks, &c.

Also, a very large stock of the best Agricultural Implements, viz: 3 horse, 2 horse and 1 horse Plows, Harrows, iron and wooden framed Cultivators, Iron Clod-Crushers and Sectional Rollers, one Wheat Drill with Guano attachment, one superior Threshing Machine, Wheat Fans, two Reaping and one Mowing Machine, Farm Boilers, Spades, Shovels, Axes, Mattocks, Picks, Crow-Bars, Blacksmith and Wood Shop Tools, with Bellows, &c., and Carpenter's Tools.

Also, 20 shares of stock in the North Carolina Railroad Company.

Also, all the Household and Kitchen Furniture, one new Hydraulic Ram with glass air-chamber, and a large lot of Lead and proof Tin Pipe, with every variety of property named in the Trust.

I invite all my friends to attend the sale, and supply themselves with material to begin and prosecute an improved system of husbandry, from the point I have left off.

W. R. HOLT.

At the time and place above named, the sale will take place, viz: Tuesday, the 11th of December, 1866, and continue from day to day until all is sold.

THE SENTINEL.

Wednesday Evening, Oct. 31, 1866.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—W. R. Smith, President of the Board of Trustees, Scotland Neck, Halifax county, wishes to secure the services of a competent teacher, the ensuing year, for Vine Hill Academy.

J. C. Washington, Esq., offers to lease, for a term of years, his valuable farm adjoining the town of Kinston.

K. P. Battle, Esq., will sell forty or fifty cords of pine wood, already cut and corded, about two miles from Raleigh.

J. Rosenbaum calls attention to his splendid stock of Fall and Winter good at his new Store, No. 15, Fayetteville Street.

J. Brown (with Hart and Lewis) advertises Kerosene Oil at $1 per gallon.

W. S. Tucker, Esq., offers for sale a fine horse, buggy and harness.

It will be seen that Andrews, Wholesale and Retail Grocer, will sell his fine Norfolk oysters, to regular customers, at $1.60 per gallon.

NEW GOODS.—We observe our merchants are getting new goods almost daily. Messrs. Creech, Heartt, Cooke, Wheeler, and perhaps others, have made two trips this fall to replenish stocks. Messrs. Tucker, McKimmons, Rosenbaums, Davis & Jones, R. B. Andrews & Co., W. R. Andrews, the Klines, Hart & Lewis, and Messrs. Pulliam, Jones & Co., and B. P. Williamson & Co., wholesale dealers, are constantly receiving new accessions to their stocks.

R. W. TAYLOR, of this city, has been appointed marker and weigher of cotton for this District.

DR. GARDNER, the celebrated Physician from New York, whose advertisement is in our columns, is in Wilmington. He will be in this city shortly.

THE BASE BALL MATCH.—The match game of the City Base Ball Clubs, on Friday afternoon, will commence at two o'clock. R. W. Best, Esq., will act as umpire. The following gentleman compose the respective representative nines:

Pioneers: S. G. Ryan, James McKimmon, Saml. C. White, Andrew Syme, W. E. Anderson, A. P. C. Bryan, D. C. Murray, B. C. Manly and R. H. Bradley.

Tar Heels: Chas. M. Busbee, G. H. Snow, John Pescud, Augustus Weddin, Geo. Tonnoffske, Jno. Blount, Bolling Starke, Pulaski Cowper and Cad J. Iredell.

THE "sere and yellow leaf" is full upon us.—The primal frosts are rapidly disrobing the trees of their foliage. The grand luxuriance of our shade trees constitutes, perhaps, the principal ornament of Raleigh, and we see it pass away 'til another Spring with regret.

The temperature begins to smack of winter, and fires are comfortable and cheerful. We trust that through the agency of the Young Men's Christian Association, and in other forms of organized effort, plans may be adopted for relieving the wants of the suffering poor during the coming hard season.

ARRIVALS AT THE EXCHANGE HOTEL, Oct. 30, 1866.—Benjamine F. Mebane, Mebaneville; S. F. Phillips, Chapel Hill; M. O. Sherrell, Newton; O. D. Cooke, Boon Hill; Charles Daly, Albert Lorsch, New York; James B. Shepard, Raleigh; B. A. Merrimon, Baltimore; Mrs. Adams and child, Portsmouth; W. K. Lane, Goldsboro'; R. W. Lassiter, Oxford; J. A. Womack, Pittsboro'; J. C. Collins, Virginia; D. Holbrook, N. C.

State News.

——A LARGE DOCKET.—The civil docket of New Hanover, at the Fall Superior Court just closed at Wilmington by Judge Merrimon, we learn, numbered 700 suits, besides the many criminal cases on the docket. Lewis and Augustus Williams, convicted of highway robbery, noticed by us on Monday, were sentenced to be hung.—Solicitor McKay conducted the prosecution with skill and ability.

——The Fall Term of Mecklenburg Superior Court is in session the present week,—Judge Buxton presiding. The Times says that his charge was "clear, argumentative and learned, and the delivery calm and dignified." The criminal docket is very heavy and will occupy all the week. Next week, the civil docket will be disposed of.

——The Banner says that the Mayor of Salisbury, on Monday, issued twenty-six more warrants in civil cases. It pertinently asks: "What does it mean! Are creditors bent on ruining the unfortunate debtors?"

——The Medical Director of the Department of the South announces that the military quarantine will be withdrawn from Wilmington (and other ports in the Carolinas) on the first of November.

——They are about to organize a base-ball club and a Thalian association in Wilmington.

——A heavy South-east gale is reported as blowing off our coast on Monday. Intelligence of many marine disasters is greatly to be apprehended in consequence.

——S. W. Glazebrook, Esq., of Virginia, but President of the Forestville Paper Manufacturing Company in this county, died in Richmond on Monday.

——The Wilmington Journal "regrets to learn from Judge Merrimon his intention to resign." We unite our regrets with those of our cotemporary, and trust that Judge M. will yet reconsider his resolve. During the brief period that he has been upon the bench he has achieved a reputation of which he may well be proud.—He has administered the law with ability and fidelity and his retirement would be a public losa. The present Judiciary of North Carolina, generally, is perhaps equal, in all respects, to any that has preceded it.

GENERAL NEWS.

The Conservative State Convention of Tennessee met on Saturday at Nashville, and Edmund Cooper was chosen President. Resolutions were passed endorsing the Philadelphia Convention and the President's policy, urging the people to reject the Constitutional amendment, and denouncing its adoption by the State Legislature as null and void.

Shall ladies have votes? Certainly. Is woman made only to sew on buttons. Even if she were, it is against the law of nature to turn away the needle from the pole.

A couple were divorced in Michigan on Monday after only twenty-four hours of marriage life. The wife left her husband on the ground that he was bald-headed and a Catholic, and would not give her a deed of his farm. The court gave him a divorce.

Red-mouthed Radicals have just held a meeting in Jonesboro, eastern part of Tennessee.—A flag pole eighty feet high, with the stars and stripes floating, was raised by the rowdies. On the banner was inscribed in flaming characters—"In a Radical Congress is our only safety."

GOOD ADVICE.—Says the New York World: "Forney's offence in rank. He deliberately, and with malice aforethought, tried to incite the negroes and ruffians of Baltimore to rise against the constituted authorities, and drench the city in blood. There are many better and purer-minded men in State prison than Forney. By all means let him be "judged."

In a case on trial before the Circuit Court of Albemarle, on Friday last, the Court rendered an opinion that bonds given in 1862, and payment in Confederate money not being specifically mentioned in them, payment must be made in currency.

A wealthy planter of Mississippi is at New York urging emigrants to go South instead of West.

The cholera has so far subsided in London that it is no longer considered necessary to issue a daily return.

A distinguished London physician has been for twenty years living on one meal a day, and enjoys the best of health.

A respected citizen of Franklin, N. H., ended a little domestic difficulty by hanging himself.

General E. Kirby Smith has been elected President of the Southern Telegraph Company, in place of I. C. Boyle, resigned.

The orange crop of Georgia is remarkably large.

The Mississippi University has begun its annual session with 140 students.

The railway between Calcutta and Bombay is about 1,000 miles long, and is traversed by trains in about four days.

A Radical editor says that Carl Schurz was "scarred in the war." "Scarred should be spelled in this case with an r less.—Louisville Journal.

A new stove has been invented for the comfort of travelers. It is to be put under the feet, with a mustard plaster on the head, which draws the heat through the whole system. It is called "the Robinson Exhilirator."

Collection of Debts.

We regret to learn that there is a disposition on the part of some creditors to enforce collections. This is much to be regretted. There is, at this time, no money in the country. Property, if forced into the market now, will sell for a mere song, and unless the creditor wishes to take the advantage of the misfortunes of his debtor to obtain his property for little or nothing, he will greatly increase the chances of getting his pay by further indulgence. In a year or two property will sell for a much higher price than at present, and an extension of time must be mutually advantageous to both creditor and debtor. If, however, we have among us any of those heartless and unfeeling creditors, who would enforce collections for the mere purpose of enabling themselves to speculate upon the misfortunes of their debtors, by purchasing their property for a trifle,—for they alone would, in most instances, be able to purchase,—we hope that public sentiment will frown them down, and compel them to desist.—Old North State (Salisbury.)

A PLEASANT CHURCH INCIDENT.—A little three year old was being baptized recently at a Presbyterian Church in Newark, N. J., and after the sprinkling of the water, while the congregation were praying, a drop of water that had been left upon the babe's forehead began to steal slowly down its face, a stray ray of sunlight falling upon it the while from a half open shutter, and causing it to glisten in its progress like a brilliant of the richest hue. Just as it was about to fall from babe's cheek to the floor, the little one made an impulsive effort as if to wipe it away, and the falling drop was caught upon the back of the chubby hand. Speaking "right out in meeting," as the tiny hand was stretched toward mama, she said: "See, mama, see! I dot 'e baptize, an' I doin' to take it 'ome to dolly." Even the devout pastor was ill able to suppress a smile, and in the discourse which followed, the incident was illustrated, when he said—"our good deeds ever glisten in the sun light of the Father's approval, and, falling like blessings upon our little ones, are by them bequeathed to generations yet unborn."

WHO CAN TELL

How much suffering comes from Diseased Livers?—Let parents read the following, and remember that these Pills are safe for the most delicate ladies:

Wm. Carraway, Esq., Wayne Co., N. C. (Sept. 1, 1862, says: "I have used the Southern Hepatic Pills in my family. My daughter was in very bad health from disorder of the liver for the space of three years, hardly having had a week without suffering. She took the Pills regularly and strictly according to the directions on the wrapper, and her health has been entirely restored by them. I have used them with great benefit among my servants on the plantation, and can recommend them as a safe and useful family medicine."

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box fail taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and erruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear."

The Richmond Times says: "We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and successful eye and ear Surgeon in this country."

"We can safely and cordially recommend Dr. Gardner, who will fulfill all he undertakes to perform."—Baltimore Clipper.

The New Orleans True Delta says: "We can safely recommend Dr. Gardner as a successful operator on the eye and ear. He will not undertake to treat a case unless a cure can be effected.

The Wheeling Register says: "Dr. Gardner is one of the most successful Oculists and Aurists in the country. We advise those suffering from the diseases of the eye and ear to consult him."

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too patent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

We can only assure the public, that its quality is carefully kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish gratis our American Almanac in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the complaints they cure.

Those who require an alterative medicine to purify the blood will find AYER'S COMP. EXT. SARSAPARILLA the remedy to use. Try it once, and you will know its value.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

Near Warrenton, N. C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. This lot square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS.—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered.

Ex'r Dr. H. J. Davis.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the Collegge Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and keeps for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

By this practical illustration of the advantages of Life Insurance, it is commended to the confidence and support of every one desirous of providing for surviving loved ones.

As an investment merely, a Life Insurance Policy is as safe an investment of funds as can be made. The principal, generally, is not only many times in excess of the amount paid, but in a sound company it has no rival for security, and no species of Government bonds are a more desirable investment.

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS.

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy Trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of
